The Presiding Bishop's Eastertide Message

It's taken me some years to realize it, but Jesus didn't just happen to be in Jerusalem on that first Palm Sunday. He wasn't on vacation. He wasn't just hanging out in town. Jesus was in Jerusalem on purpose. He arrived in Jerusalem about the time of the Passover when pilgrims were in the city. When people's hopes and expectations for the dawn of freedom that Moses had promised in the first Passover might suddenly be realized for them in their time.

Jesus arranged his entrance into Jerusalem to send a message. He entered the city, having come in on one side of the city, the scholars tell us, at just about the same time that Pontius Pilate made his entrance on the exact opposite side of the city. Pilate, coming forth on a warhorse. Pilate, with soldiers around him. Pilate, with the insignias of Rome's Empire. Pilate, representing the Caesars who claimed to be son of god. Pilate, who had conquered through Rome the people of Jerusalem.

Pilate, representing the Empire that had taken away their freedom. Pilate, who represented the Empire that would maintain the colonial status of the Jewish people by brute force and violence.

Jesus entered the city on the other side, not on a warhorse, but on a donkey, recalling the words of Zechariah:

*Behold your King comes to you
Triumphant and victorious is He Humble and riding on a donkey*

Jesus entered the city at the same time as Pilate to show them, and to show us, that God has another way. That violence is not the way. That hatred is not the way. That brute force and brutality are not the way.

Jesus came to show us there is another way. The way of unselfish, sacrificial love. That's why he entered Jerusalem. That's why he went to the cross. It was the power of that love poured out from the throne of God, that even after the horror of the crucifixion, would raise him from death to life.

God came among us in the person of Jesus to start a movement. A movement to change the face of the earth. A movement to change us who dwell upon the earth. A movement to change the creation from the nightmare that is often made of it into the dream that God intends for it.

Jesus didn't just happen to be in Jerusalem on that Palm Sunday. He went to Jerusalem for a reason. To send a message. That not even the titanic powers of death can stop the love of God. On that Easter morning, he rose from the dead, and proclaimed love wins.

So you have a blessed Easter. Go forth to be people of the Resurrection. Follow in the way of Jesus. Don't be ashamed to love. Don't be ashamed to follow Jesus. Have a blessed Eastertide. And bless the World. Amen.

The Most Rev. Michael B. Curry, Presiding Bishop and Primate, The Episcopal Church

May we live into resurrection hope each day and intentionally follow Jesus. Amen.

Our Bishop in Creation

Episcopal Diocese of Maryland.

Bishop Sutton calls us to care for creation. He joined with the Maryland Episcopal Environmental Partners to plant and bless a tree on our Cathedral of the Incarnation's grounds.

We are called to care for creation! Today and every day we are called to care for all of God's Creation. We don't have to wait for Earth Day to celebrate the gift of life on this Good Earth. We are all partners with the environment. So go hug a tree, a pet or a human, so you too, plant and bless life.

Bishop Sutton was a co-convenor of "Unholy Trinity: Racism, Poverty and Gun Violence" conference last week in Chicago. Nearly 200 attended the event. You can read the full report on The Episcopal Church (TEC) web-site. Pictured on far left is Bishop Chilton R. Knudsen and to her left is Bishop Curry; on the far right is Bishop Sutton and co-convenor Bishop Ian Duncan.

Observe "Earth Day" with the Maryland Episcopal Environmental Partners. Last week, MEEP joined Bishop Sutton, the Lutheran Creation Care Team and the Cathedral of the Incarnation Creation Care Ministry to kick off a two year tree planting partnership. Learn more about the spiritual and environmental benefits of trees as well as how you can obtain trees for your own parish at a workshop May 13, St. Christopher's, Linthicum.

HELPING HANDS – One Month Report

Our 30-day challenge has ended and we have made some nice progress on Helping Hands but there is still a lot of work to do moving forward.

Our highlights for the month include:

- * New logo for the program
- * Completed 11.5 hours of community help
- * Handed out over 125 flyers announcing the program
- * Visited several stores to inquire about putting up signs (generally against store policy)
- * Increased number of available volunteers to 12
- * One person outside St. Paul's has volunteered and 3 more have some degree of interest.

Moving forward, we will be meeting the first Monday after the end of the month at 7:00 p.m. Please join us. If you have any questions, please call Dick at 301-829-3908 or email me at rewmd@verizon.net.

RELAY FOR LIFE

The Rockin' Robins are gearing up for another walk. This time we will be participating in the Westminster Relay (it's the location where we started in 2002.) on May 12th at the Ag Center.

This year I am personally celebrating 35 years of survival from my first bout with breast cancer and 6 years for my second. The American Cancer Society raises monies not only for research, but to support the patients and their caregivers. They do a wonderful job and a lot of people benefit from their services. There have been many advances toward finding a cure. One day, we hope to find that perfect cure to end it all and nobody will ever have to hear the words -"You've got cancer" again.

I have lost many family members and friends over the years, as I'm sure many of you have also.

That's the reason our team relays. I would like to relay this year in memory of Dallas Reeve. She was a wonderful person and is missed by everyone who knew her.

You can make a donation of any amount or purchase a luminary (candle) in her memory. You can also purchase a luminary to honor a survivor.

Please help me and my team by making a donation to the American Cancer Society. Any amount, large or small, is greatly appreciated. You may send a check to me or donate online.

Thank you for continued support of this very special event.

May's Beacon Theme: Family Ties

Everyone, the Beacon invites you to share your news, stories -past, present or future – antidotes, graduations etc. with your St. Paul's family. For our May thru August issues, the theme is "Family Ties". All articles submitted by the 20th of the month will be printed. Look below to see how easy it is.

Submitted by Carrie Brown: Alena Grace Fenton, was the Westside K – 8 School, 2017 Spelling Bee Champion. Alena is in the 7th grade. She went on to win the Osceola County (Florida) school district championship. Hurray for her!!!

Ayana Marie Fenton, will graduate from high school on May 17th. How time flies. She has secured an internship with the Summer Opera Institute at the University of Central Florida (UCF). Ayana continues as a member of the Opera Orlando Youth Company and as an apprentice of the Orlando Opera Company. Proud Grammy!!

Ama Brown-Fenton recently received a promotion to supervisor within Disney's Watercraft Transportation System.

Kojo Brown has a new service coordinator. He had a very successful I.E.P. meeting. Kojo was able to articulate 3 goals for himself and his future. Proud Mom.

St. Paul’s “A shining light in the community”

Food for thought

A blind person asked St. Anthony, “Can there be anything worse than losing eye sight?” He replied, “Yes, losing your vision!”

A Mother’s Day Prayer

In the name of JESUS CHRIST, we lift up all MOTHERS today.

We thank them for their sacrifices so that we can have a life of contentment. Grant them favour, Lord and may they have a wonderful place in existence in Your heart of GRACE.
